

ACADEMIC AND BIBLE TESTING:

OLD AND NEW TESTAMENT TESTING: Level III Bible tests are general surveys of knowledge and do not cover any specific book or books of the Bible.

There is no limit on the number of academic or Bible tests that a student may take. Tests will be sent according to the names of students registered in each event. They will normally be sent to participating schools about one week after the deadline for Academic and Bible Testing registration. Instructions for administering and returning tests will be sent with the tests. Tests will be graded by the SCACS office and results will be posted at the Festival. Results will also be included with the other results of the complete festival. Participants in Academic and Bible testing need not come to the Festival unless they are involved in another event.
